PrO UNLIMITED COMPLETES ITS 17TH YEAR OF 1099 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR EVALUATIONS WITHOUT A SINGLE OVERTURN

BOCA RATON, FL: October 5, 2009: Since its inception, PrO has completed more than two hundred thousand 1099 screenings without a single overturned recommendation. This service provides clients a decisive guide as to which contractors are legitimate 1099s. The screenings are followed by guidance and consulting to assist the contractor in setting up an appropriate business or having the client company engage the contractor through alternative, risk averse means.

Judith Benson, former IRS trainer and auditor, and currently PrO's Director of Global Compliance, attributes this milestone to "intense and thorough training of the PrO Compliance staff based on the most current case law, revenue rulings and taxing authority trends."

Additionally, PrO's President, Andrew Schultz commented, "Our success in this area is due to the level of education, experience and sophistication of our Global Compliance team. I am not aware of any other company in the industry to employ former IRS auditors to guide our clients through this process. We think this is a major reason for our success in this arena."
